

SGA Forum Panelists Changed

Two panel members for the Human Relations Forum have been changed because of previous commitments since the meeting forum had to be rescheduled.

Richard Crepeau, history professor from Siena College and Rev. Roy Dillinger, assistant director of the Tennessee Human Relations Council will replace Rev. Stanley McEvin, chaplain of Newman Foundation, and Rev. Charles Martin, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Catholic Church. The other panelists will be Eugen Schoenfeld, assistant professor of sociology at MSU, and Colby Smith, a student at Southwestern.

"A Forum?", a "tell it like it is" meeting to promote better communications about social problems on campus, will be at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the University Center Ballroom. The forum is being sponsored by the Human Relations Commission of the Student Government Association.

The panel discussion dialogue will take 45 minutes after which the floor will be opened for a question and answer period between the panel and the audience.
